TALK OF THE TOWN.

Children's bonnets at Perry's.

A large assortment of furs at Perry's. See the new fancy hair sets at Perry's.

James M. Ewen was home over Sunday from Hardwick.

Alex. Ranney moved Saturday from Kirk to South Main street.

Don't forget the Elks' minstrels at the opera house, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Camp returned on Saturday from a visit in Corinth.

Miss Minnie A. Berry of Thetford visited friends in town over Sunday.

See Felix Haney, the original Hi Holler in Way Down East, at the opera house tonight.

Miss Lucy Wells returned last night from a few days' visit in Calais and East Montpelier.

Just received a barrel of those delicious old-fashioned homebaked drops at the Red Cross pharmacy.

The audience that greeted the Elks' minstrel show at Montpelier Friday evening was well pleased.

H. J. Hood will close his shop at 14 Summer street for good on Wednesday night, on account of poor health.

If you want a suit or overcoat made to your measure, remember that the Frank McWhorter Co. has a large line of patterns to select from.

Make your plans to attend the supper given by the Ladies' Missionary society at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, October 31.

A social hour will follow the supper at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, October 31. Come and encourage the ladies in their good work.

The minstrel show Tuesday evening, October 30, is made up of Elks from this city as well as Montpelier. Let's all turn out and give them a bustling good house.

Mrs. Annette S. Willey and son, Sim, left on the noon train Saturday for Fitzwilliam, N. H., where the former is to reside with her sister, Mrs. Alfred H. Turner.

There will be a special meeting of Minnehaha encampment, No. 2, I. O. F., tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All officers are requested to be present to make preparations for a district meeting.

Harry M. Wheeler of Montpelier was struck on the head by a four-inch rafter, which fell from a two-story house Saturday afternoon. He was knocked down, but got up without assistance to the amazement of his fellow workmen, who supposed he was killed.

An idea of the cast which will appear at the opera house tonight in support of Felix Haney in "When the Harvest Days Are Over," may be obtained from the fact that his principal support is Nell Twomey, a well known leading man in "Sweet Service," and in the leading role of Frohman's "Girl I Left Behind Me."

Al Leach, one of the driest comedians ever seen in Barre, appeared at the opera house Saturday evening with a company, which, with one possible exception, was excellent. The chorus work was very good, and the entire production was thoroughly enjoyed by a fair-sized audience. The company left on Saturday night for Sherbrooke, P. Q.

George M. Goss of Montpelier, who is well known in this city, was last week elected president of the White Mountain Travelers' association, the meeting being held at Concord, N. H. Mr. Goss was born in Georgia, Vt., April 3, 1861, and after graduation from Goddard seminary began his business career with the old Stafford & Holden Manufacturing company, with whom he remained a dozen years. He is now traveling for the George E. Gilchrist company of Boston.

Few plays comes as highly recommended as "When the Harvest Days Are Over," which will be presented at the opera house tonight, under the direction of Mr. Nell Twomey. The story is said to be a very probable one and interesting from start to finish. The comedy is rich and possesses a good deal of originality. Felix Haney, who is starring in this play, is too well known to require any extra words of praise. As Her Buckins he is said to be doing the best work of what has been a highly successful career, and his singing of Her Buckins, the village out-crier, demands nightly seven and eight encores. Mr. Twomey has had the entire scenic production built and painted by recognized artists and has selected a cast which is in keeping with the star.

And He Was Back.

"I don't see why you can't be at the head of your class," said Tommy's mother. "Your teacher tells me you're pretty far back in school."

"Well, say, mom," exclaimed Tommy, "there's no plainin' you at all. Didn't you say last summer you'd be delighted to have me 'back in school'?" — Catholic Standard and Times.

Poor Old Chromo.

Picture Dealer—This, madam, is merely a chromo, and it is not expensive.

Mrs. Norwich—Ah, to be had cheap, I suppose! Of course Chromo is a very obscure artist and cannot command high prices.—Tit-Bits.

Is This Set

The average magazine is a literary swill barrel, and the man who conducts it enjoys no acquaintance with real literature or he would not occupy his position. To know literature would destroy his taste for trash, and trash is what he has to purvey in order to retain his constituency. — Chicago Chronicle.

The Daylight Store

When Cold Weather Comes

There is bound to be a shortage on good things of the heavier sort for winter wear. Manufacturers are all sold up and a few days of cold weather following warm weather that we have had will bring trade out all at one time. Those that are buying now while it is a little early are showing good judgment.

CHILDREN'S COATS

It's the children that we like to have visit our store and just at this time we have an elegant assortment of Coats for just such little folks.

We have all colors and whites in a little Silk Bear Coat at only $2.98.

We have a very neat Astrachan Coat with close collar and well lined at $3.98 that will keep any child warm.

We have a Child's Crushed Velour Coat that is a leader and our best seller. Would be a good value at $6.50. We are selling this lot at $5.00 each.

Children's Fur Sets and Separate Scarfs are now ready as we price them.

FUR COATS

We have a line of Electric Seal Coats that we had made up in June at a price when workmen were not busy (these are all made by men) and now what we have will go out at the following prices.

24-inch Electric Seal Jackets with warranted satin linings, a good $35.00 Coat, now at $24.50. This is a saving of $10.50.

Same Coat as above, with beaver collar and facings, worth $40.00, now at $29.50.

Same Coat with brook mink trimmings and Skinner satin linings, now at $29.50. You can save a ten here sure.

Three of the best values in our store.

LADIES' FUR CAPS

Last season we could not supply the demand for Fur Caps for the reason that the trade waited so late to buy these goods that the market was all cleaned out and we could not get orders filled later.

Ladies' Electric Seal Caps at $2.98 and $3.98, and a Near Seal at $4.98. The $3.98 Caps is our special and a shape that will be appreciated, as it is not a round cap like the nun's, but has length and fullness in the back to cover the hair.

Brook Mink Caps in the new shapes at $4.50.

Genuine Alaska Seal Caps, made of the smaller pieces (a beauty) at $4.98.
